

Online Courses for High School Students

1-888-972-6237

Civics*

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Civics can be expressed as a study in citizenship and government. This course will provide the learner with a basic understanding of civic life, politics, and government; a short history of its foundation and development, what rights the American government guarantees its citizens, and a survey of the duties and responsibilities American citizens must exercise in order to maintain their government. It will introduce the workings of our own and other political systems as well as the relationship of American politics and government to world affairs.

PREREQUISITES: None

COURSE LENGTH: One semester

REQUIRED TEXT: None

COURSE OUTLINE:

Civic Life, Politics, and Government

- What is civic life? What is politics? What is government? Why are government and politics necessary? What purposes should government serve?
- What are the essential characteristics of limited and unlimited government?
- What are the nature and purposes of constitutions?
- What are alternative ways of organizing constitutional governments?

Foundations of the Political System

- What is the American idea of constitutional government?
- What are the distinctive characteristics of American society?
- What is American political culture?
- What values and principles are basic to American constitutional democracy?

Principles of Democracy

- How are power and responsibility distributed, shared, and limited in the government established by the United States Constitution?
- How is the national government organized and what does it do?
- How are state and local governments organized and what do they do?
- What is the place of law in the American constitutional system?
- How does the American political system provide for choice and opportunities for participation?

Other Nations and World Affairs

- How is the world organized politically?
- How do the domestic politics and constitutional principles of the United States affect its relations with the world?
- How has the United States influenced other nations, and how have other nations influenced American politics and society?

Roles of the Citizen

- What is citizenship?
- What are the rights of citizens?
- What are the responsibilities of citizens?
- What civic dispositions or traits of private and public character are important to the preservation and improvement of American constitutional democracy?
- How can citizens take part in civic life?