

Online Courses for High School Students
1-888-972-6237

American Sign Language (ASL)

American Sign Language also known as ASL is a complete language used primarily in the United States. Many parts of Canada also use ASL. It is a visual language that uses signing. Signing is the way a person moves, places and shapes their hands in order to convey the linguistic properties of the American language to a deaf individual. Body movements and facial expressions are also integral parts on how the language is conveyed to the individual.

Course Outline:

Introduction to ASL

Family Unit

- Family members
- Question types
- Morning routines

Food Unit

- Breakfast Foods / Drinks
- Dinner Foods / Drinks
- Fruits & Vegetables
- Desserts
- Setting the Table
- Where to Eat

House and Home Unit

- Rooms in the house
- Colors
- Furniture
- Where do you live?

School Unit

- Types of schools
- Rooms in the schools
- Classes
- Sports
- Days of the week
- School personnel
- School discipline

Describing People Unit

- Physical features
- Personality and age